

It's easy to create these super cool spelling stones using a few Resene testpots.

★★★ Difficulty level ★ easy ★★ moderate ★★★ challenging Resene kids art with Mark Rayner – 102

You will need:

- 26 smooth stones
- Medium and fine artists' brushes
- Resene Art Action Quick Dry
- Resene testpots in the following colours:
- Resene Black, Resene Bright Spark, Resene Monza and Resene Sports Star

Step one

Wash the stones in warm, soapy water and then rinse with clean water and allow to dry.

Step two

Apply one coat of Resene Quick Dry to the stones and allow two hours to dry.

Step three

Paint nine of the stones with two coats of Resene Monza, allowing two hours for each coat to dry.

Step four

Paint nine of the stones with two coats of Resene Bright Spark, allowing two hours for each coat to dry.

Step five

Paint the remaining stones with two coats of Resene Sports Star, allowing two hours for each coat to dry.

Step six

Paint a letter of the alphabet on each of the stones using Resene Black. Allow two hours for the paint to dry and then get spelling!

Top tip:

In order to spell more words, you might want to create some extra letters – particularly vowels.

Here's another idea:

These cool counting stones were painted with Resene Black, Resene Gold Drop, Resene Hopbush and Resene Moxie.
